

2009 CUNY Thomas Tam Scholarship

$1,000 Award Opportunity for Undergraduate Students

Olivia Lin, an undergraduate student at Hunter College, is the recipient of the 2008 CUNY Thomas Tam Scholarship. Her project, The Coalition for the Revitalization of Asian American Studies at Hunter (CRAASH), a student-led group, was founded after she was unable to declare a minor in Asian American Studies.

CRAASH advocates on behalf of the Asian American Studies Program at Hunter College which it believes to be underfunded.

Application Deadline
Wednesday, April 15, 2009

Established by an endowment by The City University of New York, the Thomas Tam Scholarship helps support and recognize an individual CUNY undergraduate student, Asian or non-Asian, who has demonstrated creativity in the communication of the concerns of the Asian American community in areas such as Health, Education and Culture.

Thomas Tam, Ph.D., M.P.H., was the first Executive Director of the Asian American / Asian Research Institute, and first-ever Asian member of the CUNY Board of Trustees.
