

2017 CUNY Ethics and Morality Essay Contest

Presented by Asian American / Asian Research Institute - CUNY

Funded by Chynn Family Foundation

Extended Submission Deadline: Monday October 2, 2017

Submit application form and essay to:

AAARI, 25 West 43rd Street, Room 1000, New York, NY 10036

Essay Topic: Virtue

In discussing the Virtue you have selected, please incorporate all of the following points in your essay:

- Tell us about your own experience in practicing the Virtue you have chosen to write about and what personal reward or satisfaction have you gained from it.
- Why did you think the Virtue that you chose was an important one to practice in your life?
- What obstacles did you encounter in practicing this particular Virtue and how did you, or do you, still strive to overcome the difficulties?

Submission must meet the following requirements:

- Applicant must be a currently enrolled CUNY undergraduate or graduate student. Please submit copy of your college ID and current semester program. (No recommendations letters or transcripts are required.)
- Cover page containing topic of the essay, name of the student, name of the CUNY college, and date.
- Length: 1,000 to 1,500 words
- Typed, 12-size Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins, and double-spaced.
- Work-cited: Reference all materials that is not your own. Include at least five sources.
- All work must be original material. Attribution and references to quoted materials must be included.
- No online submissions. Hard copy of essay can be submitted by postal mail (postmarked by due date) or hand-delivered to AAARI office.

Title of Essay: _____

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

CUNY College: _____ Major/Program _____

Current Status (Please Circle): Undergraduate Student Graduate Student

Current Year of Study (Please Circle): Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior

Date Entered CUNY ___/___/___

Expected Graduation Date ___/___/___